

efforts. Because of limitations on the use of member dues, the Bar will have to consider whether non-dues funding would have to be generated for an entity of this kind.

7. Please provide any additional information you care to offer our members in support of your candidacy.

Please see the enclosed summary of relevant ABA, D.C. Bar and other community and professional experience (including my role as co-chair of GAYLAW in the 1990s) that make me a well-qualified candidate for ABA Delegate. I am certainly committed to LGBT equality both within the legal profession and society generally, and I can be counted on to advocate for that equality in the ABA and D.C. Bar, as I have done on many occasions in the past.
